CONGREGATIONAL MEETING Sunday, May 7, 12:15 pm

Members, please mark your calendars to attend our Fellowship's annual congregational meeting in the Sanctuary following the May 7 Sunday service.

At this meeting, members will vote on Fiscal Year 2023 -2024 budget, slates of candidates for both Governing Board and Leadership Development Committees, bylaws changes, and guidance for our General Assembly delegates.

For the agenda and information about these ballot items, please click HERE.

TGIF CELEBRATION Friday, May 12, 5:30 pm Home of Carol & Jack Rivers 13177 SW 6th Ave., Newberry

Come join our monthly celebratory gathering! This month, our TGIF gathering is at the home of Carol and Jack Rivers. Bring your beverage of choice and a snack to share. Questions about TGIF? Contact Rosemarie Dinklage at rdinklage@icloud.com.

NEWCOMERS' ORIENTATION Sunday, May 14, 12:00 pm

Newcomer orientation, an information session for people new to our congregation, will be held following the May 14 service. Curious but not sure this denomination is for you? Definitely interested in membership? This orientation session is for all of you.

For more information or to sign up for orientation, come to the welcome table in the foyer prior to service or to the visitor's table outside during coffee hour. Look for the green tablecloth. You may also contact Judith Kendall at judithkendall@cox.net for more info.

MAY SOCIAL JUSTICE CALENDAR

Saturday, May 6, 2:00 — 4: 00 pm

Vets for Peace — Peace Poetry, and Peace Scholarships award ceremonies

This event is a yearly project of Veterans for Peace sponsored by UUFG Social Justice Council. Children readng Peace Poems, Music, and great food afterward at the reception. The public is invited, especially UUFG members along with the child finalists, their families and teachers, and school board members. UUFG members are invited to bring finger foods for the reception.

Sunday, May 28, 3:00 pm Common Read: The Climate Book by Greta Thunberg

If you want the scientific language of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC) translated for non-scientists, this is the book for you. Please see the graphic on the Gazette's page 3 for an indication of why this subject is vital for study!

This anthology with an all-star cast of writers on climate is the UUFG Social Justice common read for the Summer. We will discuss the book's different sections monthly by Zoom on the fourth Sunday of the month at 3:00 PM. First discussion will be Part 1: How Climate Works, the Science, pgs. 1-41

The book is available from local booksellers in hardback for $30, on order from Amazon for $24 (used copies available for less), as an e-book for $15.99, and on Audible for $30 or one credit.

One of the recommended ways to fight climate change is to educate yourself and share with friends and family. You don't have to go it alone.

INTERIM MINISTRY SEARCH COMMITTEE UPDATE

The UUFG's Governing Board has formed a committee to review applications from the UUA for an interim minister. The committee is composed of Liz Steward from Worship, Mary Bahr from Social Justice, Mike Hazlett from Stewardship, along with Norden Lucke, Mary Anthony and Tim Christy from the UUFG Board.

If a worthwhile candidate emerges, the committee then chooses that candidate to present to the board as our interim minister for a term of at least one and possibly two years. The selection process started on May 1 and should be done by May 15. If a candidate has not been selected in this first round, a second round starts on May 22.

There have been recent surveys of the congregation regarding our direction, matters of interest, and what type of minister we should choose. The committee is reaching out to the members of UUFG for any final input they may wish to share regarding what they are looking for in an interim minister.

If you would like to share any thoughts you have regarding the selection of an interim minister, please send an email to tim.christy42@gmail.com.

BLUU — BLACK LIVES OF UNITARIAN UNIVERSALISM

Black Lives of Unitarian Universalism (BLUU) is an organizing collective committed to expanding the power and capacity of Black UUs within the denomination.

BLUU works to provide support, information and resources specifically for Unitarian Universalists who identify as Black or of African descent.

We include information about BLUU events to support those our members who also participate in BLUU. While most BLUU's events are private, occasionally they will open an event to all UUs.

For more, visit https://www.blacklivesuu.com/

Sunday, May 14 —

4:00 pm-5:30 pm — BLUU Online Worship. We invite Black Unitarian Universalists and all Black people to join us for a time of remembrance, connection and reflection through song, silence, dancing and sharing! DRUUMM:

Diverse Revolutionary Unitarian Universalist Multicultural Ministries

PUBLIC WORSHIP SERVICE Thursday, May 11, 8:00 pm

"Shine On Beautiful & Resilient People"

To Register to attend, visit https://druumm.wildapricot.org/event-5225905/Registration

Rev. Katie Romano Griffin, Guest Preacher Amanda Thomas, Musical Artist and the DRUUMM Choir

Shine on resilient and beautiful people with DRUUMM for our annual public worship featuring a festival of Black and Brown joy and resilience through original works of music and preaching. Musical director Amanda Thomas and guest minister Rev. Katie Romano Griffin are joined by gifted black and brown colleagues from across UU-verse to help bring some shine to your day including The Rev. Dr. Kristen Harper, Nasreen Khan, and Cassie Montenegro. We will feature original works of music, prayer, and poetry.

About our Guest Preacher, Rev. Katie Romano Griffin

Rev. Katie roots her ministry in relationships and in the belief that each person is inherently good and worthy of love. She is a passionate activist who believes in centering the voices of historically marginalized communities in justice work and advocates for applying an intersectional lens as we work towards co-creating a just world for all.

Prior to being called to All Souls Indy where she serves as the first called BIPOC minister, Rev. Katie served Cedar Lane Unitarian Universalist Church in the DC Metro as an Associate Minister. Before entering professional ministry, she served as a lay campus minister at Florida Gulf Coast University, had a rich career as a nurse, and worked as the co-owner of a marketing and public relations company. She has a background in coaching and hypnosis, too.

Rev. Katie is a 2017 graduate of Meadville Lombard Theological School. She serves as a Civil Air Patrol Chaplain with an emphasis on providing emergency/disaster ministry. She serves as a member of the UUA Ministerial Fellowship Committee, the UU Trauma Response Ministry and she has worked with the Sophia Lyon Fahs Educational Collaborative in developing a multi-faith, multicultural curriculum. She is a co-author of the book Class Action: The Struggle with Classism in Unitarian Universalism and has contributed to the blog Braver/Wiser.

About our Musical Artist, Amanda Thomas

Amanda is a retired UU music director and a member of Unity Temple Unitarian Universalist Congregation in Oak Park, Illinois. She has been an active UU for 22 years, and has served on the Board of Trustees for the Association of UU Music Ministries and on the UUA's Music Leadership Certification Committee. She has led workshops and music at the UUA General Assembly as a soloist, choir member, worship leader, and choir director for Ministry Days, as well as for The Service of The Living Tradition. Amanda is now serving as a Troubadour and offering services as a freelance soloist, music/choir consultant, choral conductor, workshop facilitator, worship leader, vocal instructor and respite music director. Amanda believes we can each find our own joy through music. As UU's each travel their own path to a free and responsible search for truth and meaning, Amanda enjoys the monumental task of creating ways to inspire and feed the souls of all individuals through music.
